Mr. S. R. Haque, the learned A.P.P. says that the petitioner was apprehended at the spot and he also disclosed the name of his associates who had escaped away with the briefcase.

In the facts and circumstances, I do not feel inclined to grant bail to the petitioner for the present. Hence, prayer is refused. However if so advised, the petitioner renew his prayer for bail after completion of one year of incarceration from the date of his remand in this case.
